Recommendations:

- National dementia plans need to become a policy priority.
- Person-centred care must become the norm.
- Care should be culturally appropriate and gender inclusive.
- Support for carers must be prioritised.
- Care needs to be coordinated and accessible.
- We must continue to challenge stigma and raise awareness it remains a severe barrier.
- Education must be improved and expanded.
- Further trials of cost-effective and evidenced-based psychosocial interventions are needed.
- Risk reduction must be bolstered.
